

Dr. Elai Rettig

Dr. Elai Rettig is a lecturer and assistant professor in the Department of Political Studies and a senior research fellow at the Begin-Sadat Center for Strategic Studies at Bar-Ilan University. He specializes in energy geopolitics, national security, and international environmental policy.

His research examines patterns of international conflict and cooperation over shared energy resources and environmental threats. He studies the politics of energy trade, the role of oil in Israel's foreign policy history, and the challenges of transitioning to renewable energy sources in the Middle East.
