

Navy Commander (ret.) Eyal Pinko

Navy Commander (ret.) Eyal Pinko served in the Israeli navy and intelligence agency for 30 years.

He served 12 years as head of development programs and senior systems engineer for weapons systems and missiles and an additional six years as a unit commander at Naval intelligence, where he focused on maritime terrorism, weapons proliferation, and national security. He subsequently served five years as head of an operational intelligence division at the Prime Minister's Office. After his retirement in 2017, he was a senior consultant at the Israeli National Cyber Directorate.

He is a senior research fellow at the Begin-Sadat Center for Strategic Studies and a researcher and lecturer in intelligence, cyber, national security, and maritime security.
eyal.pinko@gmail.com